Templar and Holy Grail History

Book called – “Parsifal”

Holy Grail appears at King Arthur’s Court – and then disappears.

So the Knights would then find the HG and then the land and the people would go out and find it.

Finally found, and Balance was restored.

Parcavil says:

“[The Grail] is well known to me...many formidable fighting men dwell at Munsalvaesche with the Grail. They are continually riding out on sorties in quest of adventure. Whether these same Templars reap trouble or renown, they bear it for their sins. A warlike company lives there. I will tell you how they are nourished. They live from a Stone whose essence is most pure. If you have never heard of it I shall name it for you here. It is called “Lapsit exilis.” By virtue of this Stone the Phoenix is burned to ashes, in which he is reborn. Thus does the Phoenix molt its feathers! Which done, it shines dazzling bright and lovely as before! Further: however ill a mortal may be, from the day on which he sees the Stone he cannot die for that week, nor does he lose his colour. For if anyone, maid or man, were to look at the Grail for two hundred years, you would have to admit that his color was as fresh as in his early prime, except that his hair would grey! Such powers does the Stone confer on mortal men that their flesh and bones are made young again. This Stone is also called “The Grail.”

Munsalvaesche Is the Mountain of Salvation.

Templar Rule

- Templar Rule of Comforted Brothers, circa 1240
- Article 8: "There are Elected brothers and Consoled brothers throughout the world. Where you see tall buildings built, make the signs of recognition and you will find many righteous men, with knowledge of God and the Great Art. They have received it from their fathers and masters and are all brothers. Among them are: the Good Men of Toulouse, the Poor of Lyon, the Albigensian, those near Verona and Bergamo, the Bajole of Galicia and Tuscany, the Beghards and Bulgarians. You will lead them to your chapters by underground passages and for those who are fearful, you will give them the Consolamentum outside the chapter before three witnesses."
- Article 9: "You will receive fraternally the Brothers of these groups and, in the same way, the Consoled of Spain and Cyprus will fraternally receive the Saracens, the Druze, and those who live in Lebanon."

Note the special signs of recognition!

These are all Gnostics!

Anyone could receive direct knowledge of G*D without anyone else – no priest – no Pope.

Templars went underground.

- In 1245 William de Sonnac became the Sovereign Grand Master of the Templar Order in Jerusalem. Later, in 1247, Brother William de Sonnac, sent a distinguished Knight Templar delegation to England, in order to present to King Henry III 'a portion of the Blood of our Lord, which He shed to the Cross with the salvation with the planet, enclosed in the handsome crystalline vessel.' The relic was authenticated beneath seal from the Patriarch of Jerusalem, the bishops, abbots and nobles on the Holy Land. The sacred vessel was called the "Chalice of the Rose Cross", and it contained the rare hermetic and alchemical elixir, which was called the "Blood of Christ" or the "Red Lion". This vessel passed into the possession of Henry IV, King of Navarre. The vessel and its contents were later deposited in the cathedral church of St. Paul.

- The pathways on the Qabbalstic Tree are called by the Zohar under the name of “Parzuv”- which means “face”. If we add the article for God onto this, which is “Al” or “El”, then we get “ParzuvEl”- or “Parzivel”, who is the hero in the Grail legends. Likewise, we will state emphatically at this time that it is no coincidence that the idol claimed to be venerated by the Templars at our Order’s persecution between 1307-1314, which has been called the Baphomet, was described as a face- or sometimes a three faced head, which ties in directly with descriptions of the qabbalistic tree from the Zohar. The Zohar states: “There are three upper heads; two, and one which contains them”.
- Parzival first published in Toledo, along with the Zohar.

From The Lily in the Zohar: "And this secret is written about in the verse, 'I will raise up the cup of salvation'- for this is the cup of benediction that is raised after the meal. The cup of benediction must rest on five fingers, and no more, just as the lily rests on five rigid leaves that represent the five fingers. And this lily is the cup of benediction..."

- the Zohar mentions that there are seven continents and that the earth is round and that the earth goes around the sun. In the section called VaYikra, the Zohar describes that the Earth rolls as a ball, so while some are on top others are down; and while for some people the sun shines, for others it is dark; and there is a place where there is daylight all the time except, for a little time of darkness. The Zohar also says that there are seven continents and one of them is not populated. This was of value to early Templar navigators after the Zohar was discovered. Even later explorers like Christopher Columbus consulted Rabbi Abraham Zacuto- who was an ardent studier of the Zohar. Columbus' father in law was also a Templar, which is where he learn of this Zohar connection. Rabbi Abraham Zacuto was also the one who advised King Manuel I of Portugal to send Vasco da Gama on his historic journey around Africa and guided Vasco da Gama and prepared him for the famous journey. Vasco da Gama was likewise a Templar initiate, having been initiated into the Order under the Knights of Christ lineage at the time.

Also that there were 7 continents and that one of them was not populated.

The KTs went to Portugal after they were disbanded –
 “Port of the Grail”...

- In Wolfram von Escchenbach's Parzival is the hermit Trevizrent, whose name means "the Threefold Knower," a title that is the equivalent of "Trismigistus." In fact, the very word "hermit" comes from "Hermes." Therefore, the very character that reveals the Grail tradition in Parzival is in fact Hermes Trismigistus.
- "As Above, so Below". Zohar: "Everything is connected with everything, right through to the nethermost end of all the links of the chain, and the true essence of God is both above and below, in the heavens and on earth, and nothing exists apart from it."

The Patron Saint of Alchemy!

Hermes into Hebrew is HRM = Hiram!

Hermes said: As above, so below.

- The Emerald Tablet of Hermes
- (As Translated by Sir Isaac Newton c. 1680)
- "Tis true without lying, certain & most true. That which is below is like that which is above & that which is above is like that which is below to do ye miracles of one only thing.
- And as all things have been & arose from One Mind by ye meditation of One: so all things have their birth from this One thing by adaptation.
- The father is the sun, the moon its mother, the wind (air) hath carried it in its belly, the earth its nurse.
- The father of all perfection on ye whole world is here, Its force or power is entire if it be converted to earth. Separate thou ye earth from ye fire, ye subtle from the gross sweetly and with great industry.
- It ascends from ye earth to ye heaven & again it descends to ye earth and receives ye forces of things superior & inferior.
- By this means you shall have ye glory of ye whole world & thereby all obscurity shall fly from you.
- Its force is above all forces. For it vanquishes every subtle thing & penetrates every solid thing. So was ye world created.
- From this are & do come admirable adaptations whereof ye means (or process) is here in this. Hence I am called Hermes Trismegistus (the thrice illustrious), having the three parts of ye philosophy of ye whole world.
- That which I have said of ye operation of ye sun is accomplished & ended."

Rule of the Templars c. 1268 ce

- #325: No brother should ever swear when angry or calm, nor should he ever say an ugly or vile word, even less do such a thing. Each brother is required to do all noble actions and say all good words. No brother should wear leather gloves, except the chaplain brothers who are permitted to wear them in honour of Our Lord's body, which they often hold in their hands; and the Templar Mason brothers may wear them sometimes...but they should not wear them when not in work.

Q & A –

My Q –

I am very interested in making the Philosopher's Stone - using molten Antimony and Gold Calx, and then by using acid and basic to form mono atomic gold in the mixture. Are you doing this? And - who can I contact to proceed in doing this? Dr. Patrick G. Bailey, KTCH, B400.

His A -

That is definitely one of the secrets of Alchemy!

Mono Atomic Gold – Also found in Sea Salt – one of the main ingredients.
He has a lab and he extracts it all of the time.

In the Torah -

Solomon 666 talons of gold (transformation) in exchange for bread – monoatomic gold – mana – shrew bread.

Cathars – Moni Ceremony – Eating the MAG!

Q – What about Cymatics – what is a good book?

A – Building Temples with Harmonic Ideas in mind...

Where the chambers would resonate at certain frequencies –

Isaac Newton studied that –

Also corresponded to Boyd's Law – planetary distance ratios...

So they would resonate with a more universal order.

END.
